

errata (no, not erotica ... calm down)

after this thing was printed I noticed that a few formatting errors had crept back into the mix, causing words or lines to disappear in a couple of the recipes. Granted, this is not nearly as much of a disaster as it could be in another type of book (say, air traffic control), but still I don't want your dinner to be left hanging, sooo here's the corrections (the missing text is in italics):

pg 8 - ingredients list ... it should be 1 1/2 teaspoons madras curry powder pg 20 - "lay back rest of bag" pg 26 - "the roux's done when the second beer is"

pg 45 - "add salt, butter, pepper and set aside. drizzle cider-maple syrup over individual pumpkins and serve" pg 52 - add to the ingredients list "1/4 cup chopped fresh mint" pg 77 - "Use Canola or corn oil as they will not "set up" when chilled."
